JUDGMENT

Koshy,J.

It is the contention of the petitioner that respondents 3 and 4, her sons, are threatening her. Petitioner is living in the house constructed by her late husband and respondents 3 and 4 are also co-owners of the house. It is also gathered from the petitioner herself that there are partition disputes between the parties. We are not expressing any opinion regarding the merits of the civil disputes between the parties. However, police is directed to see that law and order is maintained and lives of the petitioner as ell as contesting respondents are not endangered.

The writ petition is disposed of accordingly.
